The defendant was asked about the 15 days of work release and he confirmed he would be participating. The defendant also added he may have an additional 5 days to serve on another conviction.

On September 22, 2014, the Benton County Jail confirmed the defendant had not served any time on their work release program. The defendant is scheduled to start his work release on December 5, 2014.

As noted above, the defendant reported to the U.S. Probation Office in Richland and advised he needed to complete 15 days of work release at the Benton County Jail.
